Northwood's Cabin Retreat

Great place to relax,
fish, hike, hunt and canoe
the Big Somo River

Directions: from Tomahawk, take HWY 86 west three miles. Turn north on Loop Road then west on River Road, that winds around the airport. At Winter Road turn left. Right at the Dead End sign is driveway and 7730 Winter Road.

Spacious cabin in the "Heart of Wisconsin's Northwoods". This cabin has 2 bedrooms, full kitchen, and larger bathroom w/shower.

One bedroom has queen sized log bunk beds, and the other bedroom has a queen bed and a set of single bunk beds.

Located on the slow-moving Big Somo River providing access to 1900 acre Lake Mohawksin and the Wisconsin River.

Excellent fishing includes all species of fish from bluegills to muskies. Red Cloud boat landing is located 1 mile away. Boats can be brought into the semi-private channel for ease of use and docking at cottage's private pier.

A canoe and rowboat is included with a weeks rent. Kayaks available for additional cost.

Quiet dead end road. Adjacent to 100's of acres of paths and trails for hiking and hunting.

Located on or close to ATV and snowmobile trails.

Dairy Queen, restaurants (including popular Sunday Brunch), and taverns are all accessible by boat.

Tomahawk's FREE Water ski show shows are Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

Variety of eateries—supper clubs, Dog & Suds, Chinese, Friday fish fries, Sunday brunches and pizza located in town 6 miles away.
